Does this project benefit the common good or just the profits of a retrograde industry?

PLEASE SHARE YOUR COMMENTS BELOW:

After reading the report card on Millennium proposal, the impact which could be growers and their pitiful plans at mitigation, this would get an 'F' if it were presented in a 10th grade science class.

The plan is ridiculously short and long sighted, does not take in the dire emergency our planet and all its inhabitants are experiencing. Why are we dwelling on this retro-industry when the future demands of us bold forward looking solutions.
