I came to the Longview hearing (on 5/24) to oppose the coal export proposal. I'm wearing a red shirt, I had a conversation with a man wearing a blue shirt — a proponent of the project. We agreed that this export facility would be bad for climate & safety. We also agreed that it could bring at least some short-term jobs. We agreed that he needs a job.

This looks very familiar. It's the same old jobs blackmail argument. Fossil fuel infrastructure projects notoriously bring well-paid, short-term employment and leave long-term environmental harm.

This proposal ~~is a~~ would be a significant step in the ~~wrong~~ wrong direction — towards the cliff of climate destabilization. None of us is arguing ~~against~~ against jobs, just against unhealthy, short-term jobs.

Stop the Millennium development and leave room for clean, long-term jobs. Don't turn Longview and the rail lines into sacrifice zones. Don't turn these areas into frontline communities.
