I am both a mom and retired health care worker for 35 years for hospital system here in Longview. Unfortunately I have seen too often that minutes in an emergency can make huge differences in life, death and disability. My concern is the number + length of trains coming into the area, actually along the entire route. The potential for

Car accidents and low response time for any emergencies that need to get passed these loooooong trains.

As mom I know I am accountable to help our children's, children's children. Those whose voices need to be heard and yet cannot speak.

* let's rethink ^{millennium} this in 20 years. maybe the technology to do all this moving of coal will be more mom-friendly, community friendly, human friendly, global friendly

Thankyou for your time!
