As a hospice worker, I know how damaging particulates of any kind—such as those from coal—are EXTREMELY harmful to our lungs. I watch people die every day from compromised lungs. Many may be from smoking, but there are also INNOCENT people—including children—who die from coal dust and the by-products of producing and shipping coal.

SHAME on those who would make it possible for coal to be taken out of the ground and shipping it elsewhere.

Our water quality is equally important for our farms, food and bodies. Don't ruin the only things that keep us alive. Don't be STUPID.
