I am opposed to the terminal. ~~and~~ I am opposed to open coal trains passing through Washington State and through my town. I live and work within one mile of the rail line. I object to breathing the particulates that will result from transport & I object to the pollution of the river that the rail line is in proximity to. Environmental & health costs are borne by the state's citizenry while people who do not live here reap the profit. ~~and~~

My greatest concern is global warming - my state (Washington) is struggling to figure out how to pay for fire suppression @ unprecedented levels in recent years and and due in large part to climate changes due to the burning of fossil fuels.

It is time to evolve as a species & fulfill our needs in ways that allow
- a decent future for our children's children, that do not soil & spoil ~~our~~ nature and wild life that also have a right to live.

No more coal. Coal is not right for Washington, the United States, Spokane, humans, animals, life.
