I live at 5800 NE Center Commons Way, <sup>#213</sup> Portland, <sup>OR</sup> 97213, which is Center Commons apts. We are right next to I-54 and the railroad tracks where sixteen (or more) railcars filled with coal and dust will pass my building. I have chronic sinus issues and so would be forced to move if these trains are approved. I also know that the coal barges ~~will~~ <sup>would</sup> drastically harm the newly cleaned Willamette River. Re: Jobs – there would ~~only~~ be mainly be temporary construction jobs. After that, most of the other "jobs" will be mechanized. Very few full time, permanent jobs would be created. I am a retired member of the American Federation of Teachers of the AFL/CIO. I am very sorry that local unions are so <sup>(additional space is provided on the back)</sup> misguided as to support so few jobs at such a huge environmental and health
