It is interesting that years ago this country and the world got rid of mercury thermometers. We realized that mercury was very toxic & that we needed alternative material for our thermometers. However, by allowing these coal cars to ship coal to china where it will be burned and to release mercury to unknown levels to this planet. This mercury will not stay in china, it will come here. Because of greed of coal companies ~~with~~ we will be contaminating this country again with something we KNOW is extremely toxic!

No gains can offset the problems that will occur

due to the burning of this coal.
